PEW NEWS Sunday 10th October 2021

Living out the love of Christ in our worship and service to all people.

Welcome

A warm welcome to everyone. We are glad you have joined us in this celebration of our life of faith in God. There is a special church area to help children feel at home here, and we hope you will join us for morning tea after the Service.

The Bible Readings for today - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Job 23: 1-9, 16-17

Hebrews 4: 12-16

Mark 10: 17-31

INTRODUCTION

Like the young man who asked what he had to do to inherit eternal life we too sometimes dream of a more authentic Christian life. We dream – but are we prepared to act? For those who do strive, the rewards are great even in this life, in terms of meaning, fulfilment, and joy – in spite of trials and difficulties. Just as he did with the young man, Jesus will not allow us to settle for an answer which does not demand the best of us. Jesus challenges and stretches us to the limit of our ability and beyond, so we continue to grow in faith and in our conviction of where true wealth lies.

Call to Worship:

Leader: O God, you gather us from many places,
into one community with one another and with you.

All: We are called to be a people of hospitality, living out your life of compassion and healing.

Leader: O God, you gather us from many places,
into one community and with the whole of creation.

All: We are called to be a prophetic people, living out your life of truth and justice.

Sentence:

There is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age, and in the age to come eternal life.

Mark 10:29-30

Collect:

God of the possible,
and the impossible,
when we come to you with questions
and struggle with your answers, grant us faith in believing as we await the treasure from heaven,
which is your faithful promise.
Through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Notices:

We are pleased to be able to worship together again, and to find that some of the restrictions that we had on our worship last week have eased. We will sing hymns (while wearing masks), we can sit closer together (the Bishop asks for ‘appropriate distancing’) and we will share morning tea again (while observing the same rules that cafes have to). Please check the Pew News to see which weekly activities are being held and which are on hold for the moment.

A Garage Sale and the Annual Plant Sale are being held at St Chad’s on Saturday 16th October. Please think about what seeds you can sow, or plants you can divide for the Plant Sale and contact Revd Felicity if you need help. Items for the Garage Sale can be taken to St Chad’s. The Revd Felicity says “Are you cleaning out your shed? Do you want to donate garden bits and bobs to the plant sale? Bring them down to church next week, or contact church if you need help.”

There will be a Pet Blessing service at St Chad’s when we can get close enough to each other to pet the animals who are brought for blessing.
